

MARSDEN HM-110 BABY MEASURING MAT

Ideal for babies and toddlers

The HM-110 is a lightweight and portable baby measuring mat. This height measure is easy to use, easy to clean and incredibly accurate. The HM-110 is highly durable, yet still comfortable against a baby's skin. To keep the HM-110 measuring mat in pristine condition we recommend using standard hospital cleaner.

Who would use the HM-110?

Baby measuring mats are typically used by community midwives and health visitors, as well as neonatal wards. This allows a baby or toddler to be measured whilst laid. We have also found since the initial launch of this baby measuring mat that it is highly popular with new parents to help monitor the growth of their baby in between midwife appointments.
